

YVONNE SCHUCHART

Yvonne Schuchart is a writer who lives in South Central Pennsylvania. She holds a degree in Social Science and is a member of the Pennwriters Organization, the Romance Writers of America, and the Central Pennsylvania Romance Writers. She writes non-fiction, poetry, and fiction.

Her fiction titles currently include: IN THE SHADOW OF PORTER'S HOLLOW, and RETURN TO PORTER'S HOLLOW, books 1 and 2 of THE PORTER'S HOLLOW SERIES—stories that mingle the paranormal with family issues and folklore. Book 3, THE CURSE OF PORTER'S HOLLOW is slated for release in September of 2018.

Yvonne has written feature stories for the York Daily Record in York, PA, and her articles and poetry have appeared in various publications.

Born in Havre de Grace, Maryland, Yvonne has made South Central Pennsylvania her home for most of her life. She is fascinated with human and animal behavior and interactions—what makes us all do what we do. She also enjoys the mountains, long hikes, and motorcycles, and always has a large stack of books on her nightstand waiting to be read.
